Abstract – The abstract should be written in Times New Roman, 11pt size font and the document should be single-line spaced. The word limit should not exceed 250 words. Top, Bottom, and Right margins of the page should be set to 2.5 cm, and the left margin should be 3 cm. The fonts, sizes, and styles for the title, names of authors, affiliations, should be as shown in the header of the paper. The name of the presenting author should be underlined. The corresponding author should be identified with a <#> sign above the author's name and his/her e-mail address should be provided as indicated above. Abstracts should be submitted in Microsoft® Word format.

The abstract should briefly point out the research problem, objectives, methodology/ experimental design, results and discussion, and conclusion. Do not include section headings in the abstract. Citations, References, Figures, and Tables should not be included in the abstract.
Keywords: Please add a minimum of three keywords separated by commas.

Extended Abstract - The extended abstract is a more elaborate version of the abstract that describes the research work being carried out and the research outcomes. The extended abstract should be typed in this same document, starting from the second page, following the abstract. The body of the extended abstract should be organized into sections; Introduction, Methodology/Experimental Design, Results, and Discussion, and Conclusion.

The introduction should present a brief background of the study, research problem, and the objectives. The methodology should be minimal, sufficient to understand the research design. You may include supporting figures, tables, and images as necessary. Results should be combined with the discussion and be limited to discussing the main conclusions of the study. References should be listed in alphabetical order in a separate page in Harvard format.

The page limit is four (excluding the page with the abstract above and references) in Times New Roman font, 11pt, and single-spaced. The top, bottom, and right margins of the page should be set to 2.5 cm, and the left margin should be 3 cm.

All the tables, images, and figures should be centered. and numbered (see Figure 2 and Table 2 for example) and figure legends should be placed under the figure or image. The table header should be placed at the top.
